

ROBBERS GOT HIS $12,000 IN GOLD

New Yorker, with a Small Fortune Made in Several Years Prospecting the Klondike, Loses It on Way Home.

MONEY STOLEN WHILE HE WAS ASLEEP, HE THINKS.

Pittsburg Police Trying to Trace Coin, Which Was Probably Dropped from Train by Gang, Who Went Back for It.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—Walter Scott, who says his home is in New York, reported to the police to-day that he had been robbed of $12,000 in gold while on a Pullman car between Pittsburg and Harrisburg. Scott said he had been in Dawson City, Alaska, for several years and acquired his fortune there in mining.

He thinks the money was stolen while he was asleep and thrown from the window, and that the robbers then left the train at Harrisburg and returned to the point where the money was thrown off. Harrisburg and Pittsburg police officials are working on the case.

TROLLEY CARS IN CRASH ON BRIDGE

Policeman and Passenger Injured in Accident on the North Road—Traffic from Brooklyn Tied Up for Some Time.

Two trolley cars came together with a crash on the north roadway of the Brooklyn Bridge to-day, causing a great deal of excitement among the passengers of both cars and tying up traffic for some time. Peter Sandoff, of No. 34 Devoe street, Brooklyn, and Eastman Richard Post were injured and had to be taken to their homes.

The car in front was a DeKalb avenue trolley, No. 338. The car causing the damage was a Flushing avenue car, No. 950. As soon as the two trolleys came together there was a wild rush of the passengers, most of whom got off on the roadway. The injuries received by Sandoff and Post were bruises on the head.

"THE BREAD-WINNERS."

A Labor and Love Romance Whose Authorship Has Never Been Disclosed.

"The Bread-Winners," a novel whose authorship is one of the great literary mysteries that seems to be impenetrable, will be printed in condensed form in The Evening World beginning Thursday.

The question of its authorship seems to have been narrowed down to Secretary of State John Hay and Charles Frederick Adams, of New York, but it may be neither of these gentlemen. The name of the author is known to only three persons, and these persons will not disclose it.

"The Bread-Winners" was published by Harper & Brothers twenty years ago and made a tremendous sensation. Besides dealing with a labor strike and Socialistic matters akin to such a situation, the novel tells a strikingly original, beautiful and interesting love story. The Evening World will print this story by arrangement with Harper & Bros., who say the book still has a steady large sale.

FIRE PANIC ON THE BOWERY

Occupants of Four Big Tenements Rush in Terror to the Street When Factory Is Discovered Ablaze.

A fire which started in a three-story building in the center of the block bounded by the Bowery, Chrystie, Stanton and Houston streets caused a wild panic among the tenants of the tenement-houses that line each side of the block and did damage to the amount of $10,000.

The building in which the fire started was occupied by Caspar Iba, manufacturer of bar fixtures, and was only approached by a crooked alley. The blaze was discovered by Charles Wilson, night cashier of Lyon's restaurant, and he turned in an alarm.

The cause of the fire of the fire engines aroused the tenants of the tenements on the four sides of the block, and the glare of the flames from the burning building threw them into a panic. Into all four streets they rushed in their night garments, and several of the women in the block fainted.

A second alarm was turned in by Deputy Chief Cruger, and many of the firemen were ordered to assist the tenants in getting out.

The blaze was confined to the building in which it started, and the damage was estimated at $10,000.

Wilton Velvet One-Piece Rugs, 9 x 12 feet in size. Rich Oriental Effects. $22.40

A Clear Saving of One-Third.

Few Carpet makers are increasing their facilities for weaving Carpets; nearly every mill is adding equipment for making rugs.

One of the oldest established Carpet mills in the country recently entered the rug-making field, and the one-piece Wilton Velvets told of to-day are advance Fall lines from this mill. The makers are anxious to get a number of these Rugs placed in homes before the Fall season opens. Sort of an introductory scheme, with our co-operation—and the price is one-third the value of every Rug. We have every reason for believing that the price of these same rugs next Fall will not be under $32.50. Will you profit by buying now?
